

AEO Certification

PRESENTATION OF THE LEGAL SERVICES

Simões, Morais & Farinha Advogados offers consultation within the process of obtaining Authorised Economic Operator (AEO status), aiming to meet the growing business demands for a high-quality customs services.

Considering that the cross-border commercial economics operations are regulated by legal rules, a highly specialized legal assistance becomes crucial.

In order to better serve our customers, we accompany and represent companies in the process of obtaining the AEO status, from preliminary stages until the certification request application.

The importance this certification has on credibility and security on the company's performance in the international supply chain is recognised.

Therefore, a company that intends to optimize its economic activity in order to improve the company's image, reduce costs of customs control and be recognized as a reliable partner, must obtain the status of authorized economic operator.

We also guarantee the publication of the company in the public official list, available to all members of the international market, if requested.

A case-by-case analysis is required in order to present the client with solutions that combine safety, efficiency and agility.

Being certain that handling customs procedures requires interdisciplinary knowledge, when we are familiar with the dialogue among the different branches of the law, we are able to achieve our clients demands.
